Workshop

If you are interested in gaining a better understanding of demographic trends in the workplace, your own organizations cultural issues, or if you work in a culturally diverse environment, this workshop is for you. This workshop will help you make Manitoba's increasingly culturally and linguistically diverse workforce and customer base an opportunity

An Introduction to the Role of Culture:

- To increase knowledge of the current immigration trends in Manitoba
- To identify the source of ones own cultural programming
- To examine one's personal values and assumptions and how they relate to culture.

Cross Cultural Communication

- To define and identify basic elements of communication
- To recognize communication as a result of different cultural norms
- To examine barriers that impact communication in diverse environments

About the Facilitator

Manola Barlow is a Diversity Trainer with The Diversity and Intercultural Training Program of Manitoba. Manola offers a variety of workshops that promote diversity in the workplace and intercultural awareness. Manola has also taught English as an Additional Language and developed specialized programs for Newcomers in collaboration with MB Labour and Immigration.
