The information you share with a prospective board member has a significant impact on how successful this person will be on your board. This potential board member needs information in order to make an informed decision that's right for both of you. Plus, sharing key information will make this person's transition onto the board much smoother. Find out what you need to tell potential board members before they say "Yes".

AGENDA:

- 11:45 Registration
- 12:00 Overview
 - w The link between Board recruitment, retention and contribution
 - w Key information to share with prospective Board Members
